

- I. Write a recursive method for calculating the factorial.
- II. Write a method of recursively adding up the numbers from 1 to the taken value specified by the user.
- III. Write a method that generates and clearly displays Pascal's triangle with a specified height specified by the user.